What is a cookie?

Cookies are files containing small amounts of information which are downloaded to the device you use when you visit a website. Cookies are then sent back to the originating website on each subsequent visit, or to another website that recognises that cookie. Cookies do lots of different and useful jobs, such as remembering your preferences, and generally improving your online experience.

There are different types of cookies. They all work in the same way, but have minor differences

Wisemove-property.co.uk uses the following cookies:

Google analytics. What is Google Analytics?

Google Analytics is a free Web analytics service that provides statistics and basic analytical tools for search engine optimization (SEO) and marketing purposes. for more information please visit <https://www.google.com/analytics>

Addthis.com-What is addthis.com?

This is a tracking cookie for more information, please visit <https://www.addthis.com/>

What if I don't want to accept cookies?

If you wish to restrict or block the cookies which are set by any website - including Wisemove websites, you should do this through the web browser settings for each web browser you use, on each device you use to access the Internet.

Please be aware that some of our services may not function if your web browser does not accept cookies. However, you can allow cookies from specific websites by making them "trusted websites" in your web browser. For more information on how to do this you may wish to visit www.allaboutcookies.org which contains comprehensive information on how to do this on a wide variety of browsers.
